Stefano Villa (PhD, M.S.)
Villa is associate professor in healthcare management at Catholic University. He is also coordinator of field research projects at CERISMAS (Research Centre in Health Care Management) – www.cerismas.com and coordinator of Healthcare Operations Management Area at CERISMAS and ALTEMS (Graduate School of Health Economics and Management) - http://altems.unicatt.it/

Daniele Mascia is Associate Professor of Business Organization at the Department of Management, University of Bologna (Italy). He obtained his PhD in Health Care Management from the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Italy, and has been Visiting Scholar at various academic institutions among which The University of Sydney Business School, the KTH Royal Institute of Technology (Stockholm), and the Chalmers University of Technology (Goteborg). He is a permanent visiting scholar at the Social Network Analysis Research (SONAR) Center, University of Lugano USI (Switzerland). His current research activity is focused on the analysis of inter-personal and inter-organizational health networks, the adoption of patient-centered models, and the diffusion of medical innovation. His work has been published (or is forthcoming) in journals such as the American Journal of Sociology, Social Science & Medicine, Medical Care, Statistics in Medicine and Social Networks. For his research, Daniele received a number of awards and distinctions from, among others, the Academy of Management. He is on the editorial board for the Health Care Management Review journal.

Antonio Giulio de Belvis, (MD), is Assistant Professor of Hygiene and Public Health. Director of the Critical Pathways Unit at the Teaching Hospital “Agostino Gemelli” in Rome, since 2012. His current research work is mainly in the field of Health Services Research, Health Services Management, Quality in Healthcare. Founder of EUSHAN (2012), member of the Advisory Board of CHRODIS EU Project (2014-2017) and of the Governing Council of ASSIMSS, the Italian Branch of the European Association of Systems Medicine (2017). Since 2011 he is in charge as National Leading Member for Italy in the WHO European Observatory on Healthcare Systems and Policies.

Elena Cantù (PhD)
Elena Cantù is associate professor in management at Catholic University in Milan. She is also coordinator of the Accounting Systems Area at CERISMAS (Research Centre in Health Care Management) – www.cerismas.com and ALTEMS (Graduate School of Health Economics and Management) - http://altems.unicatt.it/

Marco Marchetti (MD)
Marco Marchetti is the Director of the National Centre for Health Technology Assessment of Istituto Superiore di Sanità. He has been since December 31th the Director of the Health Technology Assessment and Innovation Unit at University Hospital Agostino Gemelli. He also teach Health Technology Assessment at Catholic University.

Giuseppe Scaratti (PhD, M.S.)
Scaratti is full professor of Work and Organizational Psychology at Catholic University. He is also in charge of the Leadership and Organizational Culture competence area at CERISMAS (Research Centre in Health Care Management) – www.cerismas.com

Antonella Cifalinò (PhD) She is associate professor in management accounting at Catholic University, where she coordinates the Master of Science in Management and Consulting. She is also Deputy Director of CERISMAS (Research Centre in Health Care Management) – www.cerismas.com, coordinator of the training division of CERISMAS, and coordinator of Healthcare Planning and control Area at CERISMAS and ALTEMS (Graduate School of Health Economics and Management) - http://altems.unicatt.it/