

Partnership for Health System Sustainability and Resilience

Founded by the World Economic Forum,
London School of Economics and AstraZeneca

Partnership for Health System Sustainability and Resilience

Arnaud Bernaert,

Head of Shaping the Future of Health and Healthcare,
World Economic Forum

Prof. Alistair McGuire,

Head of Department and Chair of Health
Economics, Department of Health Policy,
London School of Economics

Stefan Weber,

Global Head of Policy, AstraZeneca

Rome, November 30th, 2020

Health care needs a reset

Health systems...

built and often technologically remained in the 20th century

already overstretched by growing disease burdens not prepared to cope with health shocks such as COVID-19 or natural disasters

Now is the time to rethink health care and take action

Partnership for Health System Sustainability and Resilience (PHSSR)

Founding Partners:

World Economic Forum

London School of Economics

AstraZeneca

Ambition

Scope

SUSTAINABILITY:

ability to continually deliver key functions, meet goals and population expectations

RESILIENCE:

ability to prevent, respond to, and recover from crises

PHSSR Goals

Build knowledge, understanding and consensus

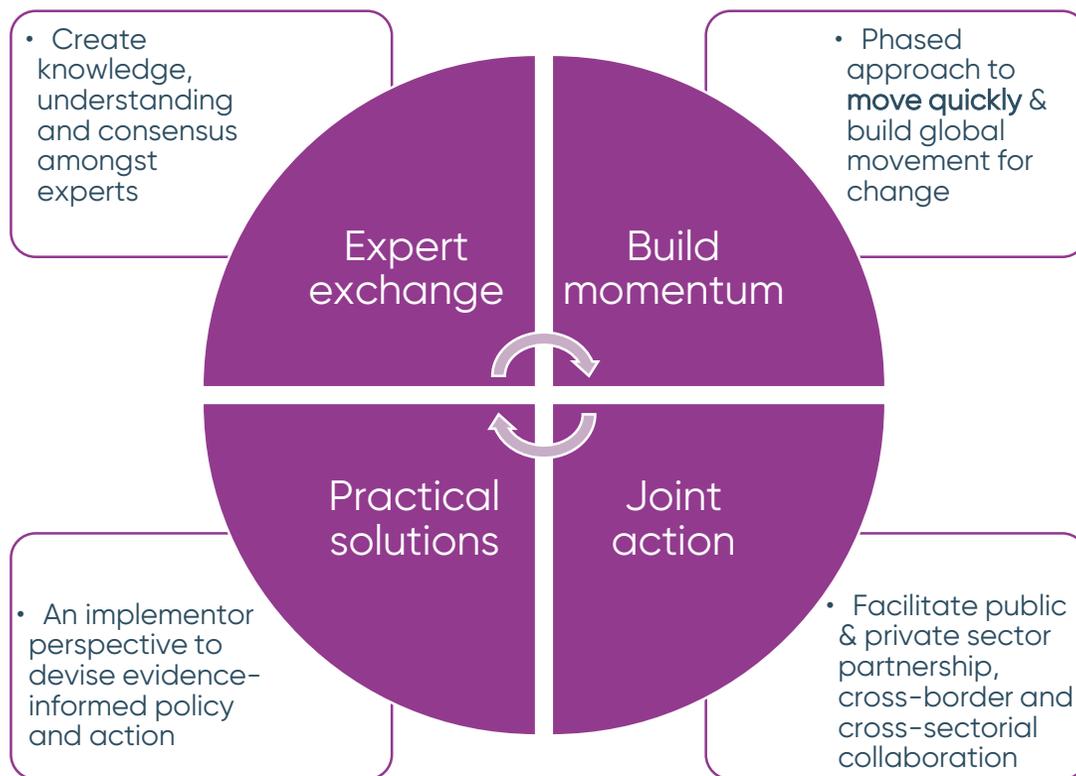

Identify policy changes and guide action

Facilitate cross-border and cross-sectoral collaboration

Approach

Outputs

Pilot phase

- Prelim. Framework
- 8 country assessments
- 16+ case studies
- 4 vision blueprints
- Findings reported Q1 2021

Expansion

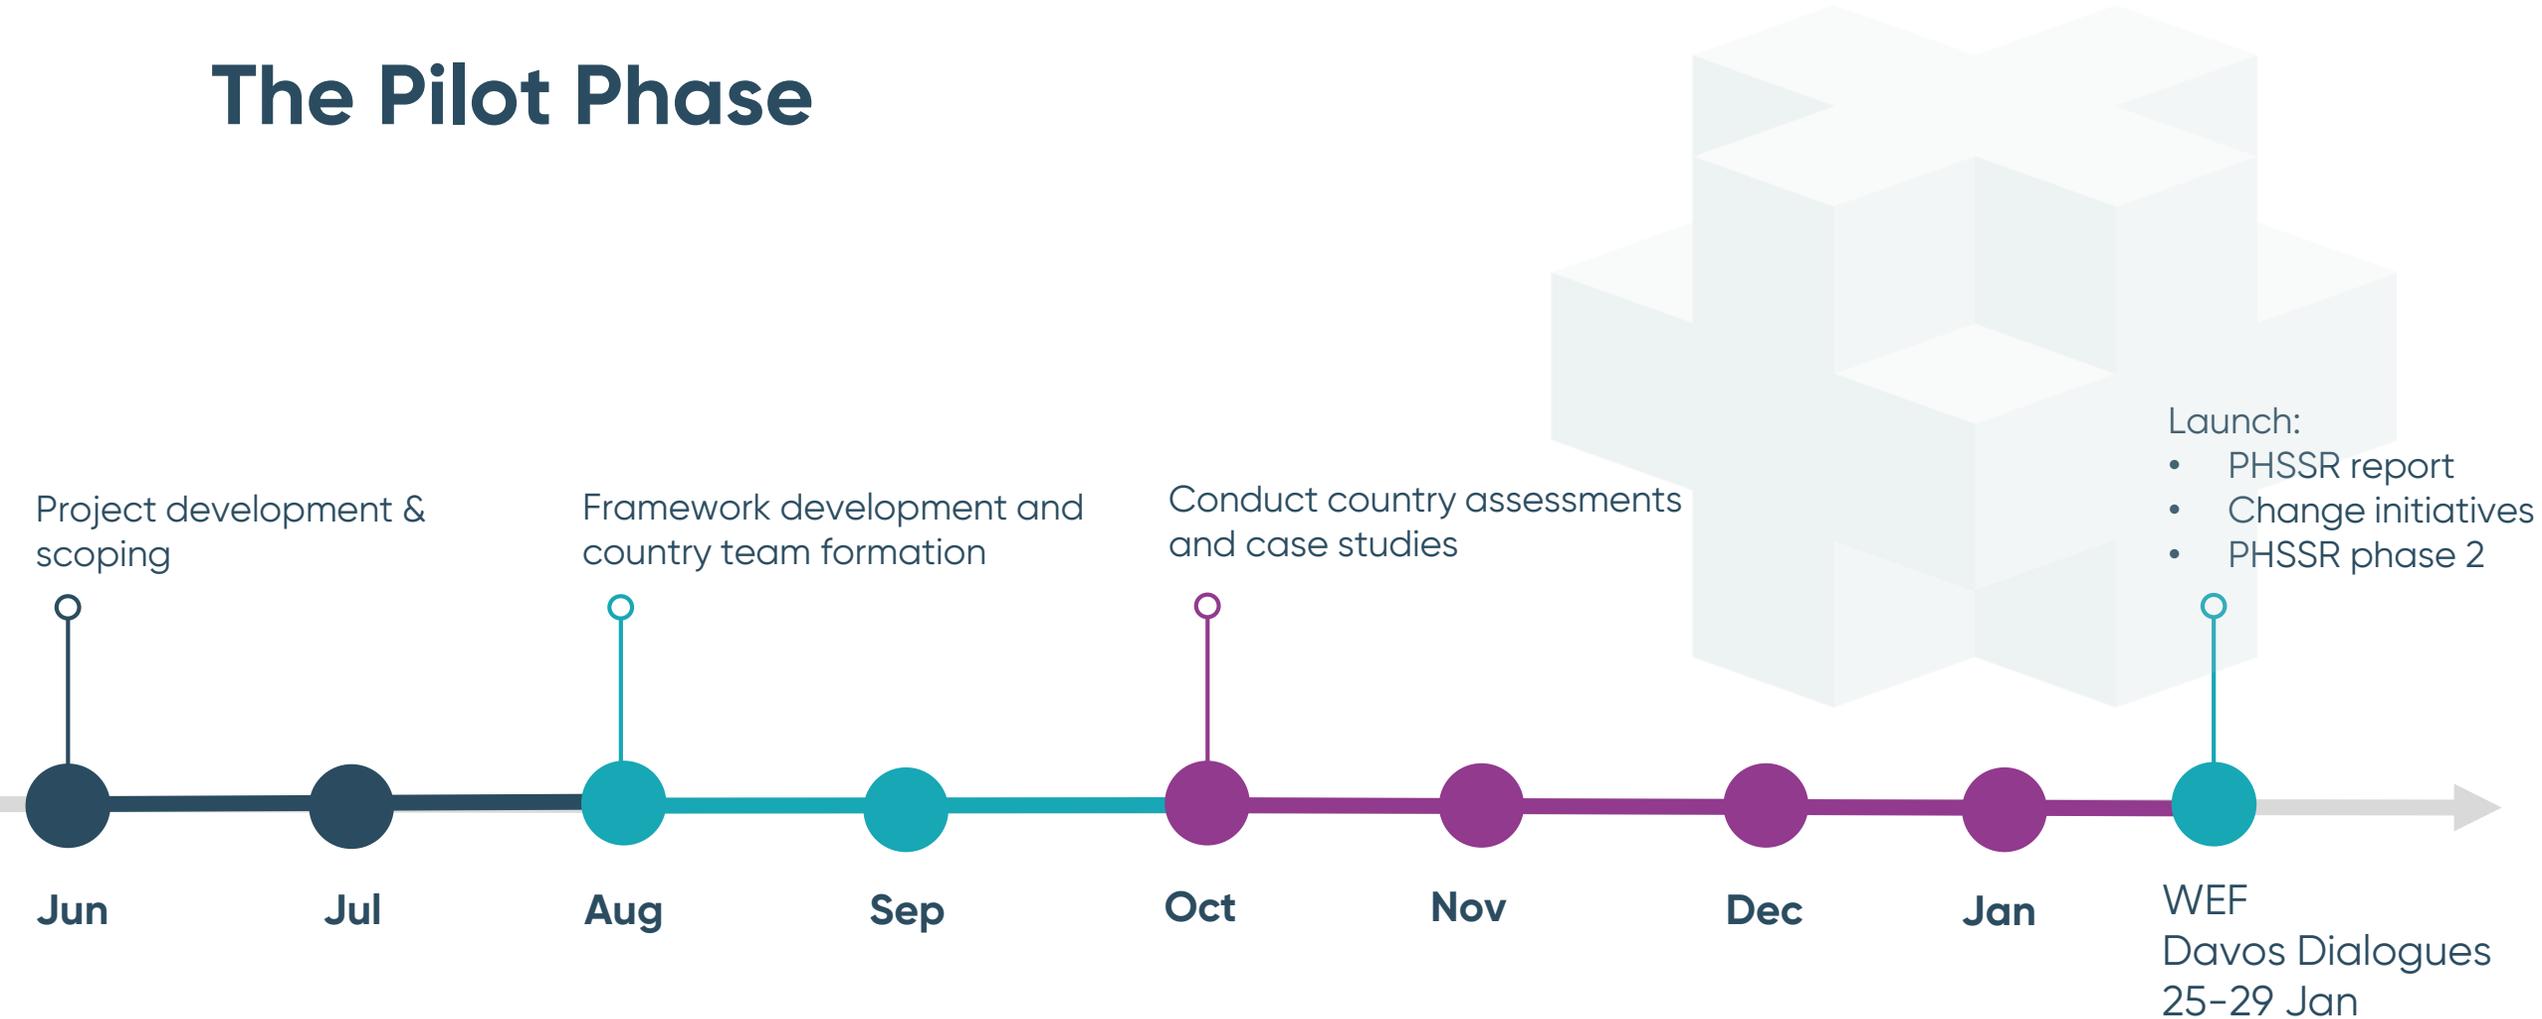

- More partners and funders, more countries
- Quantified index
- Global risk reports

Expert network (pilot phase)

The Pilot Phase

11/17/2020

Building sustainable & resilient health systems is a long-term, collective effort

We started the pilot...

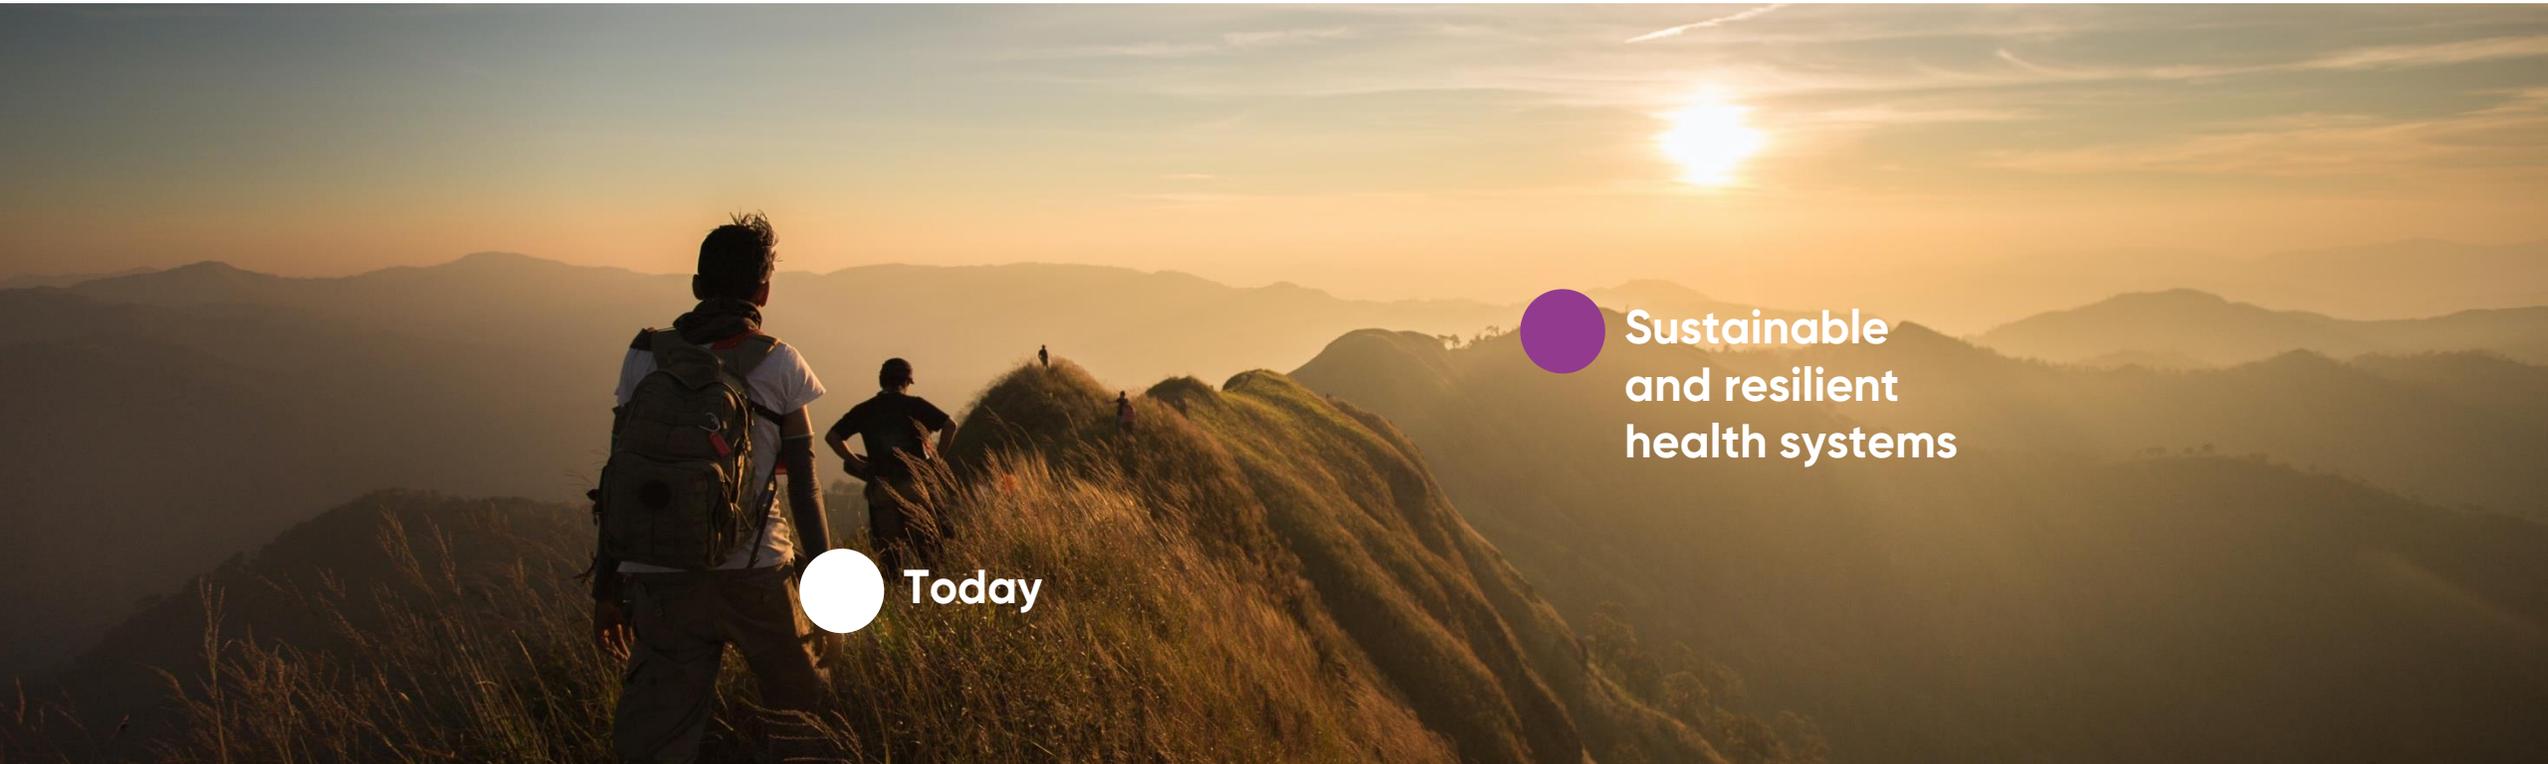

- Oct 2020 – Jan 2021
- Rapid support effort
- 3 founders
- 8 countries
- Better insights, timely solutions to drive long-term change

- Jan 2021 - ...
- Long-term strategic effort
- More partners
- More countries
- Stronger health systems, healthier populations

Building sustainable & resilient health systems is a long-term, collective effort

● Today

● Sustainable and resilient health systems

How you can participate

Find out more at weforum.org/phssr

We're building a network of institutions to ensure the partnership's successful contribution to health system strengthening internationally.

Whether you represent

- a research institute
- a health-care provider
- a government
- a commercial, academic or third-sector organisation

... we welcome your participation.

Partnership for Health System Sustainability and Resilience

Founded by the World Economic Forum,
London School of Economics and AstraZeneca

Join us

